

What is Germany's interest in plug-in solar?

German consumer interest in plug-in solar devices, also known as balcony solar systems, continues to exceed all expectations. Data from Germany's Federal Network Agency shows that the number of registered installations in the country increased from 137,000 in 2022 to 230,000 in the first half of 2023 alone.

How many solar panels have been installed in Germany?

More than 500,000 plug-in solar systems have been installed in Germany, most of them taking up a seamless spot on people's balconies. New data shows another 220,000 PV devices were installed in the first half of 2024. A boom born from Germany's "very strong solar culture", in the words of one expert.

Does Germany have a solar mandate?

Solar Package I, approved in August 2023, aims to accelerate PV installation and enhance citizen participation, albeit, it is still under negotiation within the Parliament. While a solar mandate was considered, it was omitted in the final strategy. Yet, some German states have implemented their own mandates.

As a rough calculation, he estimates Germany has around 200 MW of installed balcony solar; compared to 16 GW capacity from the residential roof sector. Austria, France, Germany Italy, Poland and Luxembourg have all taken an encouraging approach to balcony solar. Ertex Solar Does Germany have a solar boom?

Germany was one of the first countries to invest in solar technology, and now produces the most electricity from solar power in Europe. But - as elsewhere - apartment blocks have been late to the party. "The multi-dwelling unit sector in rooftop solar has been really outside of the solar boom, [it] has been really neglected," says Osenberg.

How did Germany become a leader in rooftop solar?

Germany was ahead of the curve on rooftop solar in the 2000s. The government encouraged people to get involved by rewarding them with feed-in tariffs, for example, giving a fixed price for every unit of electricity sent to the grid.
