My family in Ukraine is currently without any light in their village, and they anticipate continued outages. We would like to ship a couple of US generators to Ukraine for them to use and another give to the town. The US standard is 120v at 60hz while in Ukraine they use 220v at 50hz. Is it feasible to purchase a generator and ship out there?

Meest is an option but reviews online and my friend in Ukraine both said packages don't show up quite often. There's Dnipro which seems better, however we opted to send money for them to purchase online instead. There appear to be a decent amount of power banks in Ukraine, but they're 2-4x the price right now and it's only getting worse.

What is invoice price? This is the value of goods from receipts or sales receipts, tags or other retail documents. When do you not need to pay duty for importing a generator? Yes, generators, the cost of which is less than 500 euros and the weight of which is less than 50 kg, and which are transported by car, rail or sea are not taxed.
