

Japan 100 ah solar battery

One 12v battery has absolutely no idea that it has been put in Series with another. The 8 cells (one set of 4 cells in Series, followed in series by another set of 4 cells - also in series) might not charge and discharge on an exactly even basis, but all cells are used in both directions of current. If you buy two more-or-less identical batteries, they will work fine as a ...
