How much do solar panels cost in 2024?

The average solar panel system in 2024 costs about $31,558 before factoring in tax credits and solar incentives. The Residential Clean Energy Credit is part of the Inflation Reduction Act and offsets the total cost of solar panels by 30 percent when you file your annual federal tax return.

How much does a small solar panel cost?

Small panels (under 100 watts) cost $30 to $300. A $30 panel with 100 milliamps and four volts is one of the smallest solar panels available. It can charge a lead acid battery, older versions of MP3 players and small toys.

Why are residential solar panels so expensive?

Since 2010, residential solar panel prices have fallen by roughly 50% while US solar deployment has grown by over 2,000%. The slight rise in residential solar pricing from 2020-2023 is largely attributed to supply chain tangles from the pandemic.

Do Americans really want solar panels?

In fact, the 2023 Heatmap Climate Poll found that 46% of US adults want to power their homes with solar panels in the future while 13% already do. So, what's standing in the way of American homeowners and solar panels? The biggest hurdle is often the cost of solar panels.

Should you buy solar panels from a full-service installer?

If you purchase through a full-service installer, you will likely get a lower price for each panel than buying them individually from a retail store. It's worth noting (as we'll explore further below) that solar modules typically make up less than 20% of the overall cost of a home installation.

How do you price solar panels?

In our expert opinion, the most effective and accurate method for pricing solar panels is the gross cost. Let's explain why and then discuss each pricing model in detail. A lot of work goes into ensuring that you can safely turn on your solar power system—the process is much more involved than simply attaching solar panels to your roof.
