So I just got done talking with a "representative" (his word, not mine) from IGS Energy. Normally I don't answer for the door to door people but I got a text from our neighbors downstairs that said it was important. He claimed that Cincinnati voted in 2017 to switch to renewable energy and that he could save me a couple bucks on my Duke bills ...

A large part of Pitcairn Island's early history will forever remain a mystery. The full history of both the earlier Polynesian community and of the Bounty settlers will never be completely known.[See "Pre-Mutineer History"] Differing theories and contradicting stories concerning the events that took place after the mutineers arrived at Pitcairn, have been told.

Discovery of Pitcairn Island . Captain Philip Carteret first spotted Pitcairn Island in 1767 but couldn't land due to rough seas. He miscalculated its location, marking it miles away from its true position. Years later, Captain Cook showed some interest, but it wasn't until the Bounty mutineers arrived in 1790 that the island gained attention.

New Zealand, and the Australian territory of Norfolk Island, are Pitcairn's jump off points, and home to the bulk of Pitcairn's diaspora. It is a generally accepted fact that, due to the severity of their crimes, the remaining convicted men would be ...
